The failure to celebrate the day as it deserved, was coving solely to the indifference of Mayor Sherman, and the investigial suthorities. He was approached more than a week ago upon this subject, but swear took he refused to give it a moment's consideratiod, alleging the cold weather as in excuse for the non-observance of the day. The Mayor, backed by a copperhead Council, can tender the Seightfailnes of the city to a bend of traitors, but when it comes to celebrate the mysory Washington, they don't deserve to be counted in.
